J.A. Roosevelt Esq

Dear Sir

Your favor of the 17th is recd with bill of shirts and drawers. If you have not the money on hand let me know and I will remit you at once. The boxes have arrived and are satisfactory. I must thank you again for your valuable aid and kind services. I see published in the New York Times my letter to you. I did not intend the letter for publication, as there were some reflections on the US Sanitary Comm. Their agencies at Boston & Chicago have sent is a number of cases which we acknowledge in our report a copy of which I enclose you.

Very truly yours
James E Yeatman

Will send a number of copies of the report by Express to you. The report only brings matters up to 1st May.
