

29 [April 1862]

Dear Sir [James A Roosevelt]

Your kind note and enclosure I found on my return this morning and thank you for them. I also received a letter last week from Mr W. G. Eliot, the Rev spoken of I suppose by Mr Yeatman, full of kind acknowledgments for all our assistance. I am sorry I have but $1.00 to send you this time but each one helps.

Yours etc

Elisabeth Halleck
